

The Teacher Who Knew Too Much

Rob Keeley

KEY SELLING POINTS

- A new novel from award-winning children's and YA author Rob Keeley.
- A comedy crime thriller that will captivate the young reader.
- For children of 8-12 years.

Seventeen banks and a jeweller's have been raided. The police are baffled, but only Ben knows the truth – his Maths teacher, Miss Judson, is really a safecracker!

With police and her gangster boyfriend Al on their trail, Miss Judson and Ben go on the run. But Al needs them for one last job...

This new novel from award-winning children's and YA author Rob Keeley is a quick and breathless read, a comedy crime thriller that will enthrall the young reader and keep the pages turning! Perfect for confident readers, reluctant readers or as a holiday gift.

"Rob Keeley does it again with another fantastic book for children! I have long admired his writing... His award-winning Spirits series was fabulous... I am very excited to share this book with my class in the new year. A five-star triumph from Rob Keeley." Book Addict on The Treasure in the Tower

Rob Keeley is an award-winning author of children's novels, short stories and picture books, including the Spirits series. Other credits include the award-listed stage play Mr. Everyone, and Chain Gang and Newsjack for BBC Radio. He holds author workshops in schools and libraries, and teaches Creative Writing to children and adults.

Publication Date: 28th January 2024

£9.99

ISBN: 9781805141877

Thema subject category: YFQ – Children's / Teenage fiction: Humorous stories paperback 198 x 129 mm 80 pp Portrait Author location: Wirral

PLEASE ORDER THIS TITLE DIRECT FROM TROUBADOR PUBLISHING OR FROM GARDNERS

TEL: 0116 279 2299 EMAIL: TRADEORDERS@TROUBADOR.CO.UK

TROUBADOR.CO.UK