

MAKE YOUR OWN SECRET!

Read The Secret? Want to know what the secret was? Why not try making up one of your own? Below is all you need to make up a big enough secret to get everybody talking!

Just close your eyes and choose one box from each of the three columns in the table below. Then, A+B+C = the secret of the century!

Or why not try making up some ideas of your own?

A	B	C
At the end of term, I'm going to buy...	...a magic wand...	... and I'm going to be on TV!
My Mum is a famous celebrity who has...	... a car built by aliens...	...that you can use to peel oranges!
In our attic I found...	... a treasure chest...	... which I'm painting for a London gallery!
Deep in an enchanted forest there is...	... a secret diary...	... which is hidden in my schoolbag!
On my birthday someone gave me...	... an astronaut...	... and I've sold it for a million pounds!
In a cellar deep beneath our school, someone has hidden...	... a water pistol...	...made entirely of gold!
I've found the answer to a thousand-year-old mystery. It's....	... a set of false teeth...	... in the farthest reaches of space!
When I'm in the school play I'm going to have...	... a castle built of snow...	... and there's another one in our kitchen cupboard.
The secret ingredient to a magic stew is...	... a pop act that won a TV talent show...	... and we're taking it with us on holiday!
You'll never believe this, but I'm really...	... the world's oldest piece of chicken pie...	... and nobody knows but me!
